

Policy Statement

The Education Foundation of Niagara is strongly committed to the protection and privacy of all those using our website.

The Foundation does not systematically collect any information regarding the identity of online users, and does not accept anonymous log files that stipulate the web pages visited and how frequently. This information is only used as a means of gauging interest in the Foundation, as well as, charitable events.

The Education Foundation of Niagara will never sell, trade, share, or rent personal information to its merchant partners, member agencies, or any third party.

Personal information received from donors is only used internally for fundraising and communication purposes. The Foundation does not share any personal information from our donors with other organizations or foundations.
